Camp in mountain promotes thought

Held at the JCA Camp in the mountains, Leadership Camp consisted of a weekend of brainstorming. The main topic of discussion was Homecoming Week. Also discussed were ways to get the student body more active in the lunchtime activities.

STROKING THE IVORY, Andy MacTavish and Vasken Guiragossian try to impress Amy Trimm with their piano playing talent.

"LOOK AT THAT GUY GO!" exclaim astonished Hugh Driscoll and Scott Spearman as they watch Brad Brigante hacky sack.

THINKING ABOUT HIS FOUR YEARS AT PV, Jon Israel sits alone.

ENTHUSIASTIC STUDENTS tape a helpless Doug Murtha to his bed.

MILLING AROUND, Assembly Members fresh off the bus wonder what to do.

STUNNED BY THE PRESENCE OF THEIR IDOL, Amy Ferrera, Jill Matson, Lara Detjen, and Jennifer Pushek admire Conrad Birdie while Erik Kunzelman looks on in disgust.

Bye-Bye Birdie on Palos Verdes stage

The PTSA Summer Show, "Bye-Bye Birdie," played to summer audiences on the Palos Verdes High School stage. It starred Dan Deluce as the hapless Albert Peterson, Ann Meek as Rose Alveres, and Eric Kamiya as the Elvis-like Conrad Birdie.

Set in New York and Sweet Apple, Ohio, the show depicted Albert Peterson's frantic attempts to get rock-star Conrad Birdie to bestow "One Last Kiss" to a lucky fan before going into the Army.

"WHAT DO THEY DO IN THE PARK?" asks an eager Conrad to Amy Ferrera, Jill Matson, Kirsten Benton, and Jill Zollers.

"WE'LL CALL IT 'ONE LAST KISS,' " exclaims a scheming Rosie(Ann Meek) to a distraught Albert Peterson(Dan Deluce).

SINGING AND DANCING, the New York crowd says "Goodbye" to Birdie.

SENIOR PRESIDENT, ERIN STAFFORD, is caught hiding from the turmoil of float building.

THE GORGEOUS LAMBORGHINI for the homecoming princesses impresses all.

HOW MANY CAN CRAM in the "Little Duece Coupe."

THE ANNUAL TUG OF WAR has the Freshman class "Jerkin' Back and Forth."

HOMECOMING PRINCESSES, Caroline Arminio, Liz Biggins, Shari Crogg, Laura Gorsuch, and Jeannell Steiner are presented at lunchtime.

SENIORS SUZANNE DAVIDSON AND VASKEN GUIRAGOSSIAN go "Slip Slidin' Away" during homecoming week activities.

PV twists and shouts through Homecoming Week '82

Homecoming Week was very successful with "Rock of the Ages" as the chosen theme. All four classes participated in the many activities which were enthusiastically lead by ASB President, Jon Israel.

Tug of War, ice sliding, car cramming, and soccer bopping were just some of the exciting lunch time competitions that students competed in during Homecoming Week.

The students enjoyed the Rock and Roll theme all week with special events represented by popular songs. Some of the special events included "Buy Buy Miss American Pie" (with Marie Calendar pies being sold), "You Ate Nothin' But a Hound Dog" (with hot dogs for lunch), and for the first time a special morning dance before school titled "Breakfast in America."

"HEY YOU, GET OFF OF MY CLOUD," says Tom Vogt to Mike Brandmeyer.

THERESA CORSARO AND BRIDGET KEENAN enjoy the comfort of the mats after falling off of the beam.

WINNING THE FLOAT (as usual) for the Class of 1983, Erin Stafford shows off the winning trophy.

NEITHER RAIN NOR SNOW will stop Mr. Kinney and Colleen from keeping Homecoming Day active.

OUR FAVORITE HERO, Hughie Sea King, gets the Sea King spirit going.

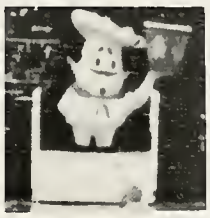
INTRODUCING BRYON NELSON, alias Lisa Mills, Jon Israel announces "Miss Brick House 1982."

BOOGIEING TO THE BEAT, are Curt Anderson, Rick Jelinek, and Rob Weidman.

Through a wall of rain, Homecoming Day shines brightly

ALL-LEAGUE John Wang brings down another runner.

On the morning of November 10, the ASB officers and Mr. Kinney were standing outside the home where the senior float was stationed at 6:30 A.M. No rain was falling, but it was due any moment. Over the thunder all one could hear were the words, "Go for it."



PVHS had an unfortunate rainy Homecoming day. Although it was wet, the activities were carried out as planned with a few exceptions. All the floats were moved to the lunch area just as the heavy rain started to fall. Instead of having the traditional obstacle course and pep rally outside, students assembled in the gym for the rally and the Miss Brick House contest. After Byron Nelson was voted the winner, Dr. Detjen announced the winning float. The trophy went to the Class of 1983 for the second year in a row.

Sunshine started to break through just in time for the football game. Although PV lost to North Torrance 14-7, the students still had fun at the game. Jeannell Steiner was announced Homecoming Queen 1982 which added to the excitement of the day.

PEP SQUAD SHAKES IT ENERGETICALLY ON DOWN with the rambunctious football crowd.

SMILING PROUDLY, Mr. Steiner walks beside Jeannell, Homecoming Queen 1982.

AS JON ISRAEL announed 1982 Homecoming Queen Jeannell Steiner, the princesses and crowd congratulate her and her father.

"Rock and Roll Fantasy" Rocks to the Rock Dodgers

PLAYING TO THE THEME OF "A ROCK AND ROLL FANTASY," the Rock Dodgers, originally the Brothers O'Brian, rock the PV crowd.

With Jeannell Steiner reigning as Homecoming Queen, the Homecoming Formal capped the damp and unusual Homecoming Week with mixed success.

The long and slow-moving lines for the photographer exasperated students and the administrators alike; however, the enthusiam of the participants, combined with the quality of the band, made the evening funfilled and enjoyable. The Homecoming Princesses included Liz Biggins, Caroline Arminio, Laura Gorsuch, and Shari Crogg.

STARING AT THE PHOTOGRAPHER, Rob Nelson and Susan Beggs try to keep warm.

LOOKING BORED, Dr. Detjen stares at the long lines.

CROWDING THE MPR, PV students and alumni dance up a storm.

Fall Play: Audience is down but the show must go on

The fall play, "Hold Me" by Jules Feiffer, was another victim of the current recession. While publicity for the Drama III,IV production was increased, attendence was way down. Lack of audience did not deter the performers from putting on an A-1 performance.

Capturing the different parts of the play were Caroline Arminio, Dan DeLuce, Eric Blatt, Pete Nelson, Jill Matson, Suzanne Davidson, Crane Landis, and Denise Harper.

"I'M LONELY," exclaims Crane Landis as he seducingly gazes at his lonely machine.

"NOT TONIGHT DEAR. I have a headache!" complains Caroline Arminio to a disappointed Dan DeLuce.

JILL MATSON AND her security blanket Pete Nelson.

"HONEY I NEED a little freedom," cries Eric Blatt.

"SUPERMAN DOES NOT JEST MA'AM."

OINGO BOINGO returns to PV High

After taking a year of absence, Oingo Boingo returned to rock the Palos Verdes' gym. Even though the temperature felt as if it were above 100 degrees it was well worth the suffering. Oingo Boingo played songs from both their albums "Only a Lad" and "Nothing to Fear," such as "Grey Matter" and "Perfect System."

It was a night to remember for Oingo Boingo fans.

OINGO BOINGO SHOWS US graphically and through their lyrics that they have much "Grey Matter."

WITH GREAT ENTHUSIASM, many Palos Verdes students dance to Oingo Boingo's music.

LEAD SINGER Danny Elfman pleases the PV crowd.

WITH MUCH CHEER AND JOY, a group of students sing "The Twelve Days of Christmas" in full attire.

Talented students entertain children at Harlan Shoemaker

Once more Palos Verdes had a successful excursion to Harlan Shoemaker. Our school sent many students, including the Orchestra, Pep Squad, and Drill Team, to entertain the school's mentally and physically handicapped children. Major highlights included "Rubber Tree Plant," "The Twelve Days of Christmas," and, of course, the annual appearance of Santa Claus. All of the PV students had a rewarding time by singing, dancing, and acting out skits.

ERIN STAFFORD sings happily to the handicaped kids.

Mac Quoid, Regan captain odd team

Aided by Dan Harrington's game-high ten points, the faculty edged the students 22-24. Scorers for the students included Frank Malone with 8, Steve Otera with 6, James Regan with 2, Greg Hill with 2, and Nina Brunstrum with 4.

Co-captain James Regan said, "We made too many turnovers in the beginning and the end, that's why we lost."

HAULING HIS ASS, Jim Li joins the struggle for the ball while two bored donkeys watch the others make "asses" of themselves.

HOLDING ON DESPERATLY, Dr. Detjen forgets about shooting the ball and tries to stay upright.

"THIS IS WORSE THAN MY JI CLASS!" exclaims a frantic Mrs. Linehan.

CHUCKLING EVILLY, James Ryono calculates how hard he has to push Frank Malone to knock him over.

WITH HIS BEST END FORWARD, Steve Otera races Coach Brian Smith to the ball.

Malone's effort isn't good enough

TRYING TO MOVE HIS ASS, the "Pride of Chippendale's" Stan the Man Chao tries to drag his donkey across the court.

WHILE DAN HARRINGTON GUARDS, Coach Brian Smith shoots in the general direction of the basket.

RIDING HER DONKEY TOWARDS THE BASKET, Nina Brunstrom lays the ball in for two.

KILLER JAMES RYONO goes after the ball as Gorilla Alan Mac Quoid and David Janssens close in.

Rules ignored in senior victory

After a year's absence, Powder Puff Football made a confusing comeback to the list of PVHS activities. When the dust cleared, the Senior class, coached by Alan MacQuoid, was victorious by the score of 6-0. However, there were many problems in the game which gave both teams the feeling that a rematch was necessary.

Not only was the game cut from 32 minutes to 20 minutes with no time-outs, but other rules were broken as well. Coaches on the field, tackling, roughing, and too many people on the field were just a few of the fouls. On the last play, when Carin Jennings ran a beautiful end around for the winning points, the Seniors had 18 players on the field while the Juniors had 12. Junior Coach Tom Marracci commented, "Alan (MacQuoid) cheated!"

Through the finger-pointing, chaos, and boredom, most people had a good time. The fans enjoyed the antics of cheerleaders Kurt Klassen, Curt Peters, Dave Janssens, Richard Sellers, and John Wang, and the players enjoyed participating in a game that left many people, "Flat on their back, staring into the sky," according to senior Sherlyn Stolz.

CLINGING FOR DEAR LIFE, Damien Delio and Lorraine Wong take time to smile at the photographer.

Sponsored by the Student Activities League, the third annual Valentine's Formal was extremely successful. Topping off the excitement for the evening, Doug Hardy was crowned as "King of Hearts" with Princes Brad Chiodo, Chris Kramer, Chuck Swanson, and Amir Dia as his court. Red, white, and heart-shaped ballons contributed to the romantic atmosphere while the popular band Rollercoasters provided the enthusiastic group with music throughout the dance.

EXHAUSTED FROM DANCING, Rusty Oshida and Denise Harper accept refreshments from Mrs. Olson.

"I THOUGHT THIS WAS KANSAS," says Addaperle (Mary Heffner).

"SLIDE SOME OIL TO ME," sings Tinman (Jeff Schrandt).

CAST, CREW, AND ORCHESTRA

AFTER EVILLENE IS LIQUIDATED, the casts sings about "A Brand New Day."

Another great musical 'wizzes' down the yellow brick road

"ALL I WANTED WERE THE SIMPLE THINGS IN LIFE: power, prestige, and money," cries the Wiz (Ted Kapner).

"Easing on down the road," Dorothy (Jill Zollars) learns how important home is on her way through the land of Oz. "The Wiz" adopted from "The Wizard of Oz," is a relatively new soul musical with an old plot. On her journey down the yellow brick road, Dorothy meets up with the Scarecrow (Adam Horn), the Tin Man (Jeff Schrandt), and the lion (Steve Friedland): sees the Wiz (Ted Kapner): and kills Evillene (Caroline Arminio), the Wicked Witch of the West.

Finally, Dorothy returns home "to a place of love and affection," by clicking her heals together three times. With the hard work of the directors, cast, crew, and orchestra, "The Wiz" turned out to be another fast-moving, colorful entertainment of the Performing Arts Department.

DURING NOON THEATER, Anita Intagliata, Denise Harper, and Kelly Roebuck emote with gusto.

"WHAT'S GOING ON," asks Chris Kramer of Tim McCallum.

SHOWING OFF HER VOGUE WARDROBE, Caroline Arminio gets comfortable in legwarmers, vans, and a quilt.

FIRST VIOLINIST ANN DELANCEY plays another beautiful melody.

CHORALE DIRECTOR TED STILL, instructs, admonishes, praises, and gesticulates to his pupils in preparation for Solos and Ensembles.

Performance Groups come through with excellent year

Completing another eventful and rewarding year were the Chorale, Orchestra and Drama groups. These organizations made copious contributions to both their school and the community.

PV's Orchestra performed in an extremely well received Christmas concert and journeyed to San Mateo to display their talents. Don Marino, head of the Music Department, turned out another dedicated and gifted musical group.

The Chorale, headed by newcomer Ted Still, went to San Mateo also in 1983. This group had several performance dates throughout the year, at both the school and in the community. Jazz Band, PV's award winning leader, performed at intermediate schools and in the fund-raising formal dance, "The Main Event."

The Drama Department came through with great performances in Storybook and Traveling Theater. A new innovation was Noon Theater, performances staged at lunch in the MPR.

PERFORMING AT MARGATE, spiffily dressed members of Orchestra play to an enthusiastic crowd.

Seniors place first in float competition for second straight year

Starting off their last year full of enthusiasm and class spirit, the Class of '83 enjoyed the many activities highlighting their senior year. For the second year in a row, the Class of '83 placed first in the float competition with their float, "Another One Bites the Dust."

Besides the Homecoming activities the Prom and Carnival Week brought a lot of fun and excitement to the Class of '83. As the end of the year neared, the Seniors actively took part in the Graduation activities, such as Ditch Day, Baccalaureate Tea, and Grad Night.

Senior Class President Erin Stafford reflected on the year saying: "At the beginning of the year, the other officers and I set a goal for the Class of '83: to accomplish a successful year while having a lot of fun. I think that's exactly what we've done."

Juniors prepare for their senior year

The juniors had a third successful year, showing great spirit and involvement through their school activities. Great progess was made while having a lot of fun. The prom, held at the Beverly Whilshire, was, as all expected, the highlight of the juniors' year.

Through encouragement and dedication, Junior Class President Walt Burkley brought the class together. Burkley commented, "Basically it was a year for rebuilding class spirit, mainly through prom fundraising."

"Two down and two to go," Sophs cheer

Activities, fun, and hard work filled another exciting year for the Class of '85. Their ceaseless spirit and involvement showed in the many lunchtime and after-school activities. Float-building, the Soph Doll Dance, and setting up carnival booths were just some of the ways Sophomores kept busy.

Class President Tom Vogt spoke poetically of the Sophomore Class: " The Sophomore Class is like a large kettle of boiling water. On the outside it seems that not a whole lot is going. The inside, however, is bubbling with life that cannot escape due to the heavy cast iron lid. Our goal this year was to lift up this barrier that traps all of this life and renders it useless, and allow the lively water to spill out and become productive. "

Frosh officers try to raise school spirit

New activites and new friends made this year an enjoyable one for incoming freshmen.

Homecoming week was, as always,a new and exciting experience for the freshmen class. Under the leadership of Class President Lisa Ito, the Class of '86 pulled together and made an impressive showing in both school activities and float building.

"The freshmen class showed great enthusiasm and involvement throughout the year,"commented Lisa Ito."We're all enjoying ourselves participating in activities we've never done before. I'm looking forward to the next four years with this class."

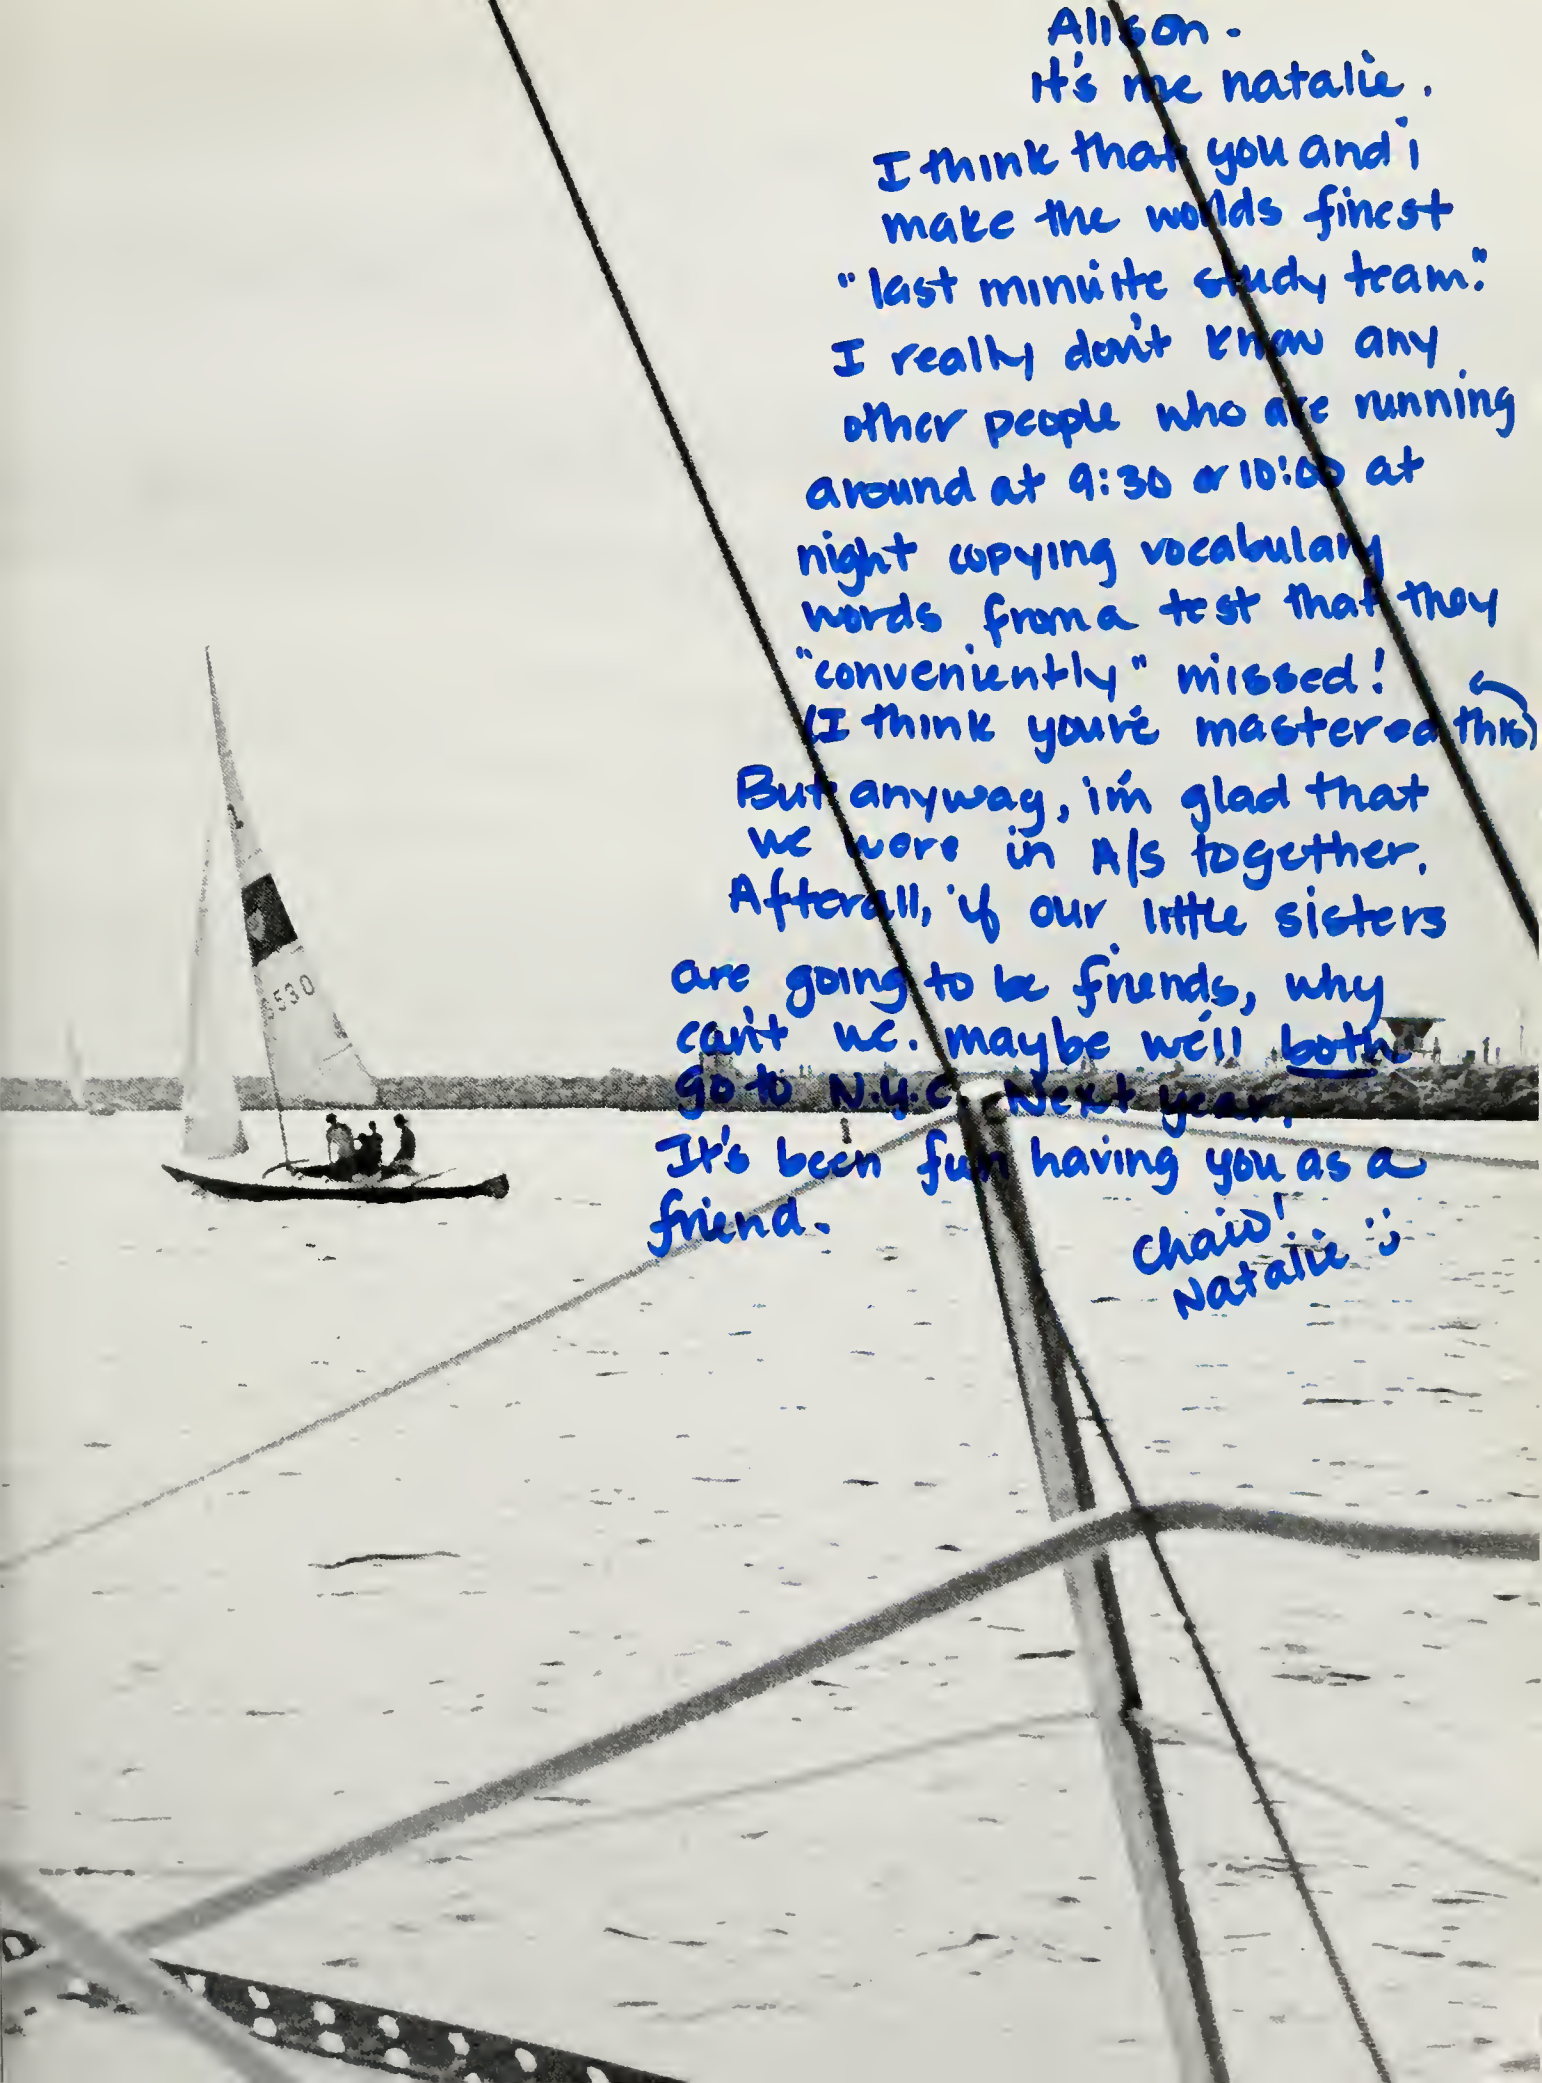
Alison,
thanks for being a friend!
It's great to have someone to help me when I miss tests, just as I've helped you. Have a great summer w/ all the guys—esp. in particular. It's cool how we always talk about things. If I play soccer next year, we'll be the old timers. I hope the team can become as close as your varsity team was last year. Lots of team parties!!! thanks for it!! I'll stay me pass history—I love you for helping them a girl. I wish you're a great person + a beautiful same, you're from around go shopping for me sometime! If you ever need a friend—I'm here. don't get too you make love ya!
P.S. —don't get too
Xoxo
everybody else look bad. Jenny



Allison.
It's me natalie.
I think that you and i make the worlds finest "last minuite study team." I really don't know any other people who are running around at 9:30 or 10:00 at night copying vocabulary words from a test that they "conveniently" missed! (I think you've mastered this)
But anyway, im glad that we were in A/s together. Afterall, if our little sisters are going to be friends, why can't we. maybe we'll both go to N.Y.C. Next year.
It's been fun having you as a friend.
Ciao!
Natalie :)

Student leadership pulls school spirit together in '82-'83

Two major goals were accomplished by the ASB officers this year. One was to get more people involved and the other was to cut down on the trash on Senior Park. The officers tried to combine the two together. Said ASB Historian, Vasken Guiragossian, "Rather than having people pick up after others, we wanted to develop a self-awareness on trash. We tried to get everyone to show some concern, involvement and pride in their school."

Assembly also had a successful year with planning many activities, including Homecoming, Harlan Shoemaker and the annual carnival. The year was summed up by ASB President, Jon Israel's profound statement, "It's been a casual year."

Student Curriculum Forum retained the teacher evaluations. As always, the Forum maintained the reputation of Creative Thought Day which has always been an exciting and great learning experience for the students. The Forum got a wide range of professionals. President, Dan Deluce commented, "This year's Forum was great. I felt we got a lot accomplished. Creative Thought Day went fine and we all had a lot of fun planning it."

The PVHS Library Advisement Committee continued its traditional activities of passing on student opinion to The PV Library Board of Trustees. Translating student views into policy advisement was the major activity of the committee, while also serving at such library functions as book and art sales and the 10K Run.

SAL expands as new members participate in school service

Through student involvement, organization and leadership, SAL contributed service and time and accomplished its main goals.

SAL's input resulted in a successful Valentine's Day Formal, intermural basketball, the annual junior-senior girl's powder puff football game, a carnival booth, and the Freshman Picnic. In addition, some members worked on individual service projects such as baking, serving at Back-to-School Night, and helping at the Music Fair. Beth Melton, SAL President, expressed her views by saying, "SAL had a very successful year due to the fact that so many more people were involved."

Art Club is a philanthropic group which provides scholarships in drawing, painting, ceramics, and crafts. They also had a See's sucker sale, a Christmas Arts and Crafts sale, as well as general spring sale. In addition, the group took field trips to museums and art galleries. The club presented art books to the Department award winners at the Awards Assembly.

Arts Unlimited is open only to serious art students and Advanced Placement Studio Art students who designed building identification signs for administration offices. Kimi Chung and Tim Caldwell won awards in the USC high school art competition while Tina Doley was awarded 3rd place in the Bill of Rights Poster Contest.

Surviving numerous deadlines, the uncertainty of the darkroom, and the general madness and mayhem of room 403, the yearbook staff produced the 1983 Triton, led by co-Editors-in-Chief Brenden Hyde and Brian Cooper. Major changes, and changes of proposed changes, were numerous: the theme was switched from "Winds of Change" to "Diversion," the negative of the cover picture was lost and subsequently refound, a proposed addition of 16 pages was dropped for lack of pictures, while the division page scheme was expanded from four to six for clarity. All in all, it was a hectic yet productive year.

Even with a large staff of 66, working on weekends was not uncommon. All deadlines were met, aided by the purchase of word processor which sped the writing and typesetting names and copy.

Taking, developing, and printing the pictures necessary for the production, the photographers contributed to the annual's record of the year. Crises in and surrounding the darkroom were met and for the most part overcome.

"This has been the best year in recent memory," commented Bob Midford, editor-in-chief. To supplement its talented personnel, PVHS' school paper purchased a computer to speed production.

In addition to having increased reader response as a goal, the Trident redesigned the 'Focus' section to focus, in depth, on issues facing readers. Wombat hunting, class disrupting and general pillaging were also prime journalistic activities of the newspaper staff.

MAKING HEADLINES, News Editors Jon Yeh and Dianne Benveniste edit news.

Growing tremendously since last year, the German Club held a bake sale and made its annual trip to Magic Mountain.

Continuing its food sales of Greek-Kabobs and Greek Takos, the popular Greek Club planned a busy year. Some activities included trips to Magic Mountain, a Bowling for Drachmas (Greek money) Tournament, the filming of a television show, and other social get-togethers.

Inspired by a private joke, the Goat Patrol was originally created to collect recyclable material, yet widened its horizons and collected cans-for-kids in December.

Once termed the mystery club, LHS saw its first year on campus. What LHS stands for remained a secret to all who remained outside of this organization. The club's only function was to perfect the game of Tripoly. LHS was led by co-presidents Mickye Coyle and Kate Halkett.

One of the new clubs on campus was Scrub Club. They kept the school spirit going. Their goal was to get all the loud mouths on campus to cheer on the players. They participated in pep rallies at lunch, in football games, and other activities.

Formed only this year, the Political Science Club was very active on campus and invited many guests to speak before the club, including Congressman Dan Lungren. The purpose of the club was to promote political awareness on campus.

In a heroic attempt to raise the verbal SAT scores of the general student population, the Vocabulary Club won the hearts of thousands. Finally in full gear during second semester, the club attacked the public with an array of incomprehensible units of the English language over the morning bulletin, outdoor stage, and in the classroom. Concerning the organization Founding President James Regan exclaimed, "It was awesome, totally awesome."

Entering its second year, the BBC Club gathered together fans of British comedians, including Monty Python, Benny Hill, Paul Hogan, and Fawlty Towers. Activities included a planned showing of "Monty Python and the Holy Grail" to the school.

Buffers study the stars very proudly

The Astronomy Club had one orbital beep bop of a time, bouffing out in their dancing in heaven contest, and the celestial swing. "We are only here to have a good time and get into the cosmos, along with the constellations," quoted one member. So far, they have done just that!

The Bandstand Club was specifically designed to help promote the enthusiasm needed for people to really get into the sports games. Their unique bizzarity and subtle freaky-bouffants helped them to complete and enjoy their mission.

Clubs keep active students on the go

Whether talking about fuel prices, the latest engines, or just the hottest new cars, the Car Club kept busy. Many meetings were held and thoroughly enjoyed by PV's car enthusiasts. Commented Brian Cooper, "There's nothing like talking about cars with other knowledgeable people."

The Bicycle Club focused on safety and endurance. Many long distance trips were planned and enjoyed by all.

Bicycle Club: Front Row: Byron Nelson. 2nd Row: Randy Neale, Jim Bowles, Greg Bachar, Scott Peppard, Jim Faustina, Jim Nakagawa, Jon Dupuy, Jeff Leonard, Rob Leake, Willis Han.

Involved students are keeping busy

Physical Fitness Club had a large turnout for a new club. Keeping in shape was their main objective and they planned activities accordingly, including a cross country ski trip.

The Oriental Culture Club planned trips to Chinatown and Korea-Town. They had banquets and bake sales, along with a large meeting with all of the Asian Clubs from the entire South Bay. Club president Phillip Lee commented, "I was surprised at how many people signed up this year."

Oriental Culture Club: Front Row: Elina Minami, Irene Koo, Jenny Lee, Joel Yang, Joyce Chiu, Amy Yu, Miki Okada. 2nd Row: Fifi Chang, Tammy Ku, Kathleen Shen, Philip Lee, Delisa Park, Robert Young, Ted Shich, Ray Chang. 3rd Row: Yun-Joo Chio, Dave Jansens, Jeff Neal, Tim Caldwell, John Dupuy, Jon Park, Jon Chou. 4th Row: Paul Midford, Rob Leake, George Chou, Do Kim, Eugene Pack, Robert Kim, Charlie Cheng, Jim Alberts.

Breakfast Club, consisting of members of the Varsity cross country team, met once a week for an early morning run through the hills (and tunnels) of the peninsula. Upon returning from their runs, these dedicated athletes prepared for their next meet by loading up on carbohydrates, dairy products, and breakfast cereals. Only the finest brew goes on their Froot Loops.

Stamp Club discussed old and new stamps as well as went to stamp and coin shows. The end of the first semester they expanded to include coin collectors.

"...and little Gumdrop rode across the deck of the ship at a 45 degree angle..." These now infamous words of Physics teacher Warren Pietro sent the demented minds (?) of two students off to the land of green clay. Thus, the Gumby Fan Club was born. The student followers—worshipers—of the green god were seen in possession of the master in class, at dances, at the Who Concert, and riding in club members' automobiles. Planned activities included the making of a Gumby movie, and an attempt to revive the spirit of Gumby's pal Pokey.

Easy Listener Club, headed by Anita Intagliata and Beth Cartwright, loves to listen to "easy" music, such as K-JOI and K-BIG. Their meetings have been most informal.

Model United Nations competed at several conferences this year representing various countries such as Cyprus, the USSR, and Columbia. They did well, winning a multitude of awards and were invited to the prestigious Georgetown conference at theUniversity of Georgetown, in Washington D.C.

Led by ruler Pat Chang, the Palos Verdes Math Club improved in Bay League math competition. After placing fifth in their first competition, the team attempted to qualify for the annual math contest at Pomona College. The team also conducted the annual math contest between the intermediate schools. Other than that, it was a pretty dull year.

Athletes and scholars meet for interesting gatherings

Although the ski season began much earlier than previous seasons, PV's Ski Club did not ski, due to administrative rules. Mr. Donahue, club sponsor commented that, "PV is the only school that does not go on ski trips." In place of skiing, the club purchased tools and materials for a planned ski-waxing clinic.

The sun shone brightly. It was hot. The students followed their leaders as the waves crashed. Bob and Rod were god. It was good. They had sent out the bait. And the students caught it. The bait was a man and his gun. Ernest was the bait. Ernest was dead fish. Then they said goodbye to their arms and only read books. Because Bob and Rod said so. After school the snow drifted on glass. It was in a jar and it could kill a man. Thus the bells tolled the end of another day in the short happy life of the Ernest Hemingway Fan Club; but the sun always rises.

Clubs show their enthusiasm by aiding the community

As usual Keyettes and Delphinians worked hard impressing their school and community. Both held many differant fund-raisers, social activities, and service projects. To raise funds, the clubs celebrated differant holidays by dressing up: Delphinians became Delph Elfs and sold ginger bread men for Christmas, while Keyettes celebrated Halloween as witches and sold Dapple Apples. For Carnival week, the clubs orginized booths, and Keyettes raffled off picnic baskets. And as usual, Delphinians had its succesful formal.

Because of their outstanding number of participants, they made all their service projects more exciting. Both clubs went to convalescent homes, baby sat for the children of mothers taking classes at Lunada Bay School, and handed out phone books.

Interact showed its enthusiasm by staying active in the community. Sponsored by the Rotary Club, Interact helped clean and maintain the peninsula. Led by President Dave Janssens, the club spent hours cleaning the campus as well as the cliffs of the peninsula. Interact also helped keep the Par Course on PV Drive West and Via Coronel.

In its own way, the S-Club also showed enthusiasm by helping the community. Led by Co-Presidents Kate Halkett and Debbie Shlens, the club's sense of responsibility was truely demonstrated by visiting convalescent homes and working at hospitals throughout the South Bay. To raise funds for its work, S-Club organized a bake sale, sold concessions during PV sporting events, and sold May Flowers during May Day.

Benches, donkeys, firemen, boutique...

Donating many hours of school and community service, Spartans completed a highly successful year. Assisting the Lunada Bay School's PTA, Spartans babysat the children whose mothers were enrolled in the aerobic class. Members also prepared a delicious Thanksgiving dinner for the Palos Verdes Estates Firemen.

Led by President Susan Ferguson, Omegans developed a high sense of camaraderie during an extremely active year. For their main fundraiser, Omegans created a myriad of ornaments and other holiday gift items for their annual Holiday Boutique and donated all profits to the Junior Blind. The club also visited a convalescent hospital where they brightened the lives of numerous patients.

Drama produces fantasy and humor

This year's Drama Department successfully presented "Hold Me" and "The Wiz". In addition, Drama III placed in numerous festivals and events throughout the year. In the Fall Festival, the Senior Division placed first in Sweepstakes and in Group Serious, Comedy, and Theme out of seventy schools participating in this event.

Student clubs help lessen pressure on PV High students

Although it is a little known group, the International Exchange Club serves a very usefull purpose on campus. The aim of the club is, in every way possible, to help the foreign exchange students. The exchange students were treated to many trips including a whale watch, a trip to Ports O' Call, and a day in Los Angeles. Another important goal of the club was to purchase yearbooks for the exchange students. To raise money for this, the club held a car wash and a bake sale. Commented club member Maggie McIntyre, "In all, it was a very productive year."

International Exchange Students: Cecilia Larson, Simon Woods, Roxanna Medinaceli, Patricia Carrera.

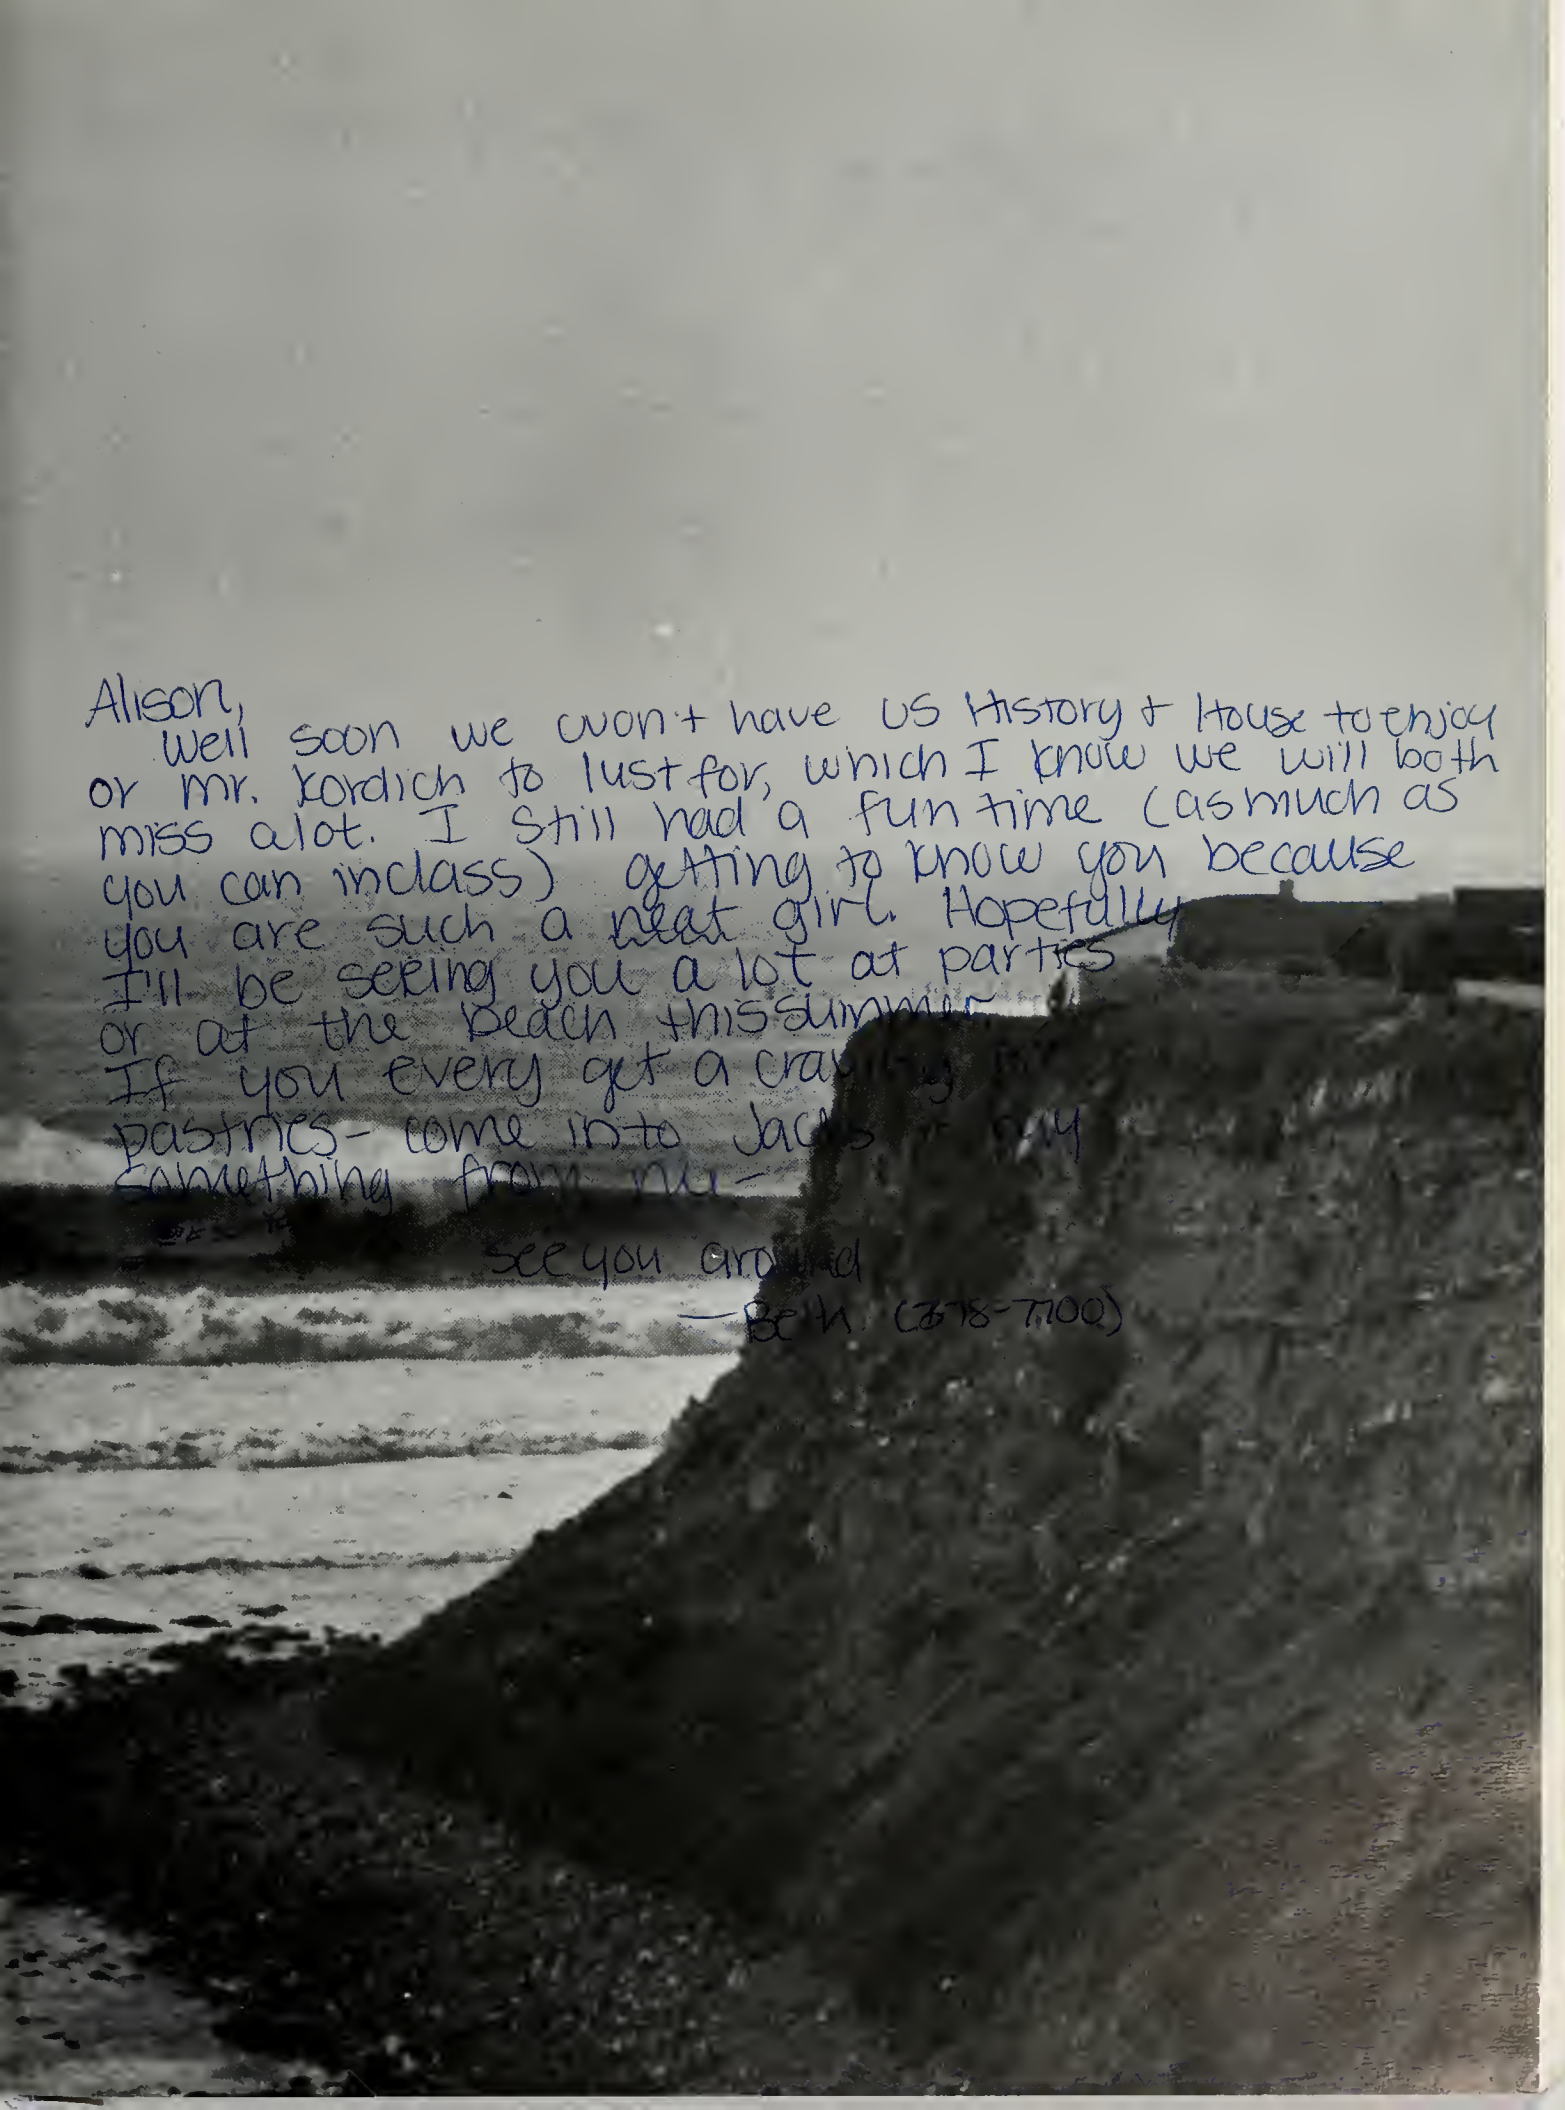
Alison,

Well, its finally here - can you believe it? I'm happy that we got a chance to do some fun stuff together this year (like trying to find someone's house for a few hours) seriously - I'm sitting here thinking of all the times we have sat around laughing at the dumbest things. You've been a good friend to me Alison and I wish so much that you could come to S.B. with me. But you can come up any time. I am going to miss you and your stupid questions very much. (just kidding - Alison never says anything stupid). I hope you will find someone next year to go to aerobics with, since I was not to enthused about the whole thing. Its really hard to say goodbye to a friend who is as special as you are - so this really isn't a goodbye. I'm sure that we will have many more good time in the future. Just think - we may even be working together this summer. Have a good time next year because you will remember all the good times for the rest of your life. I know I said this before Alison, but I am going to miss you so much, but hopefully the memories of the times we have shared together will [illegible] no matter how long its been since we've seen each other. Good Luck Alison and take care -

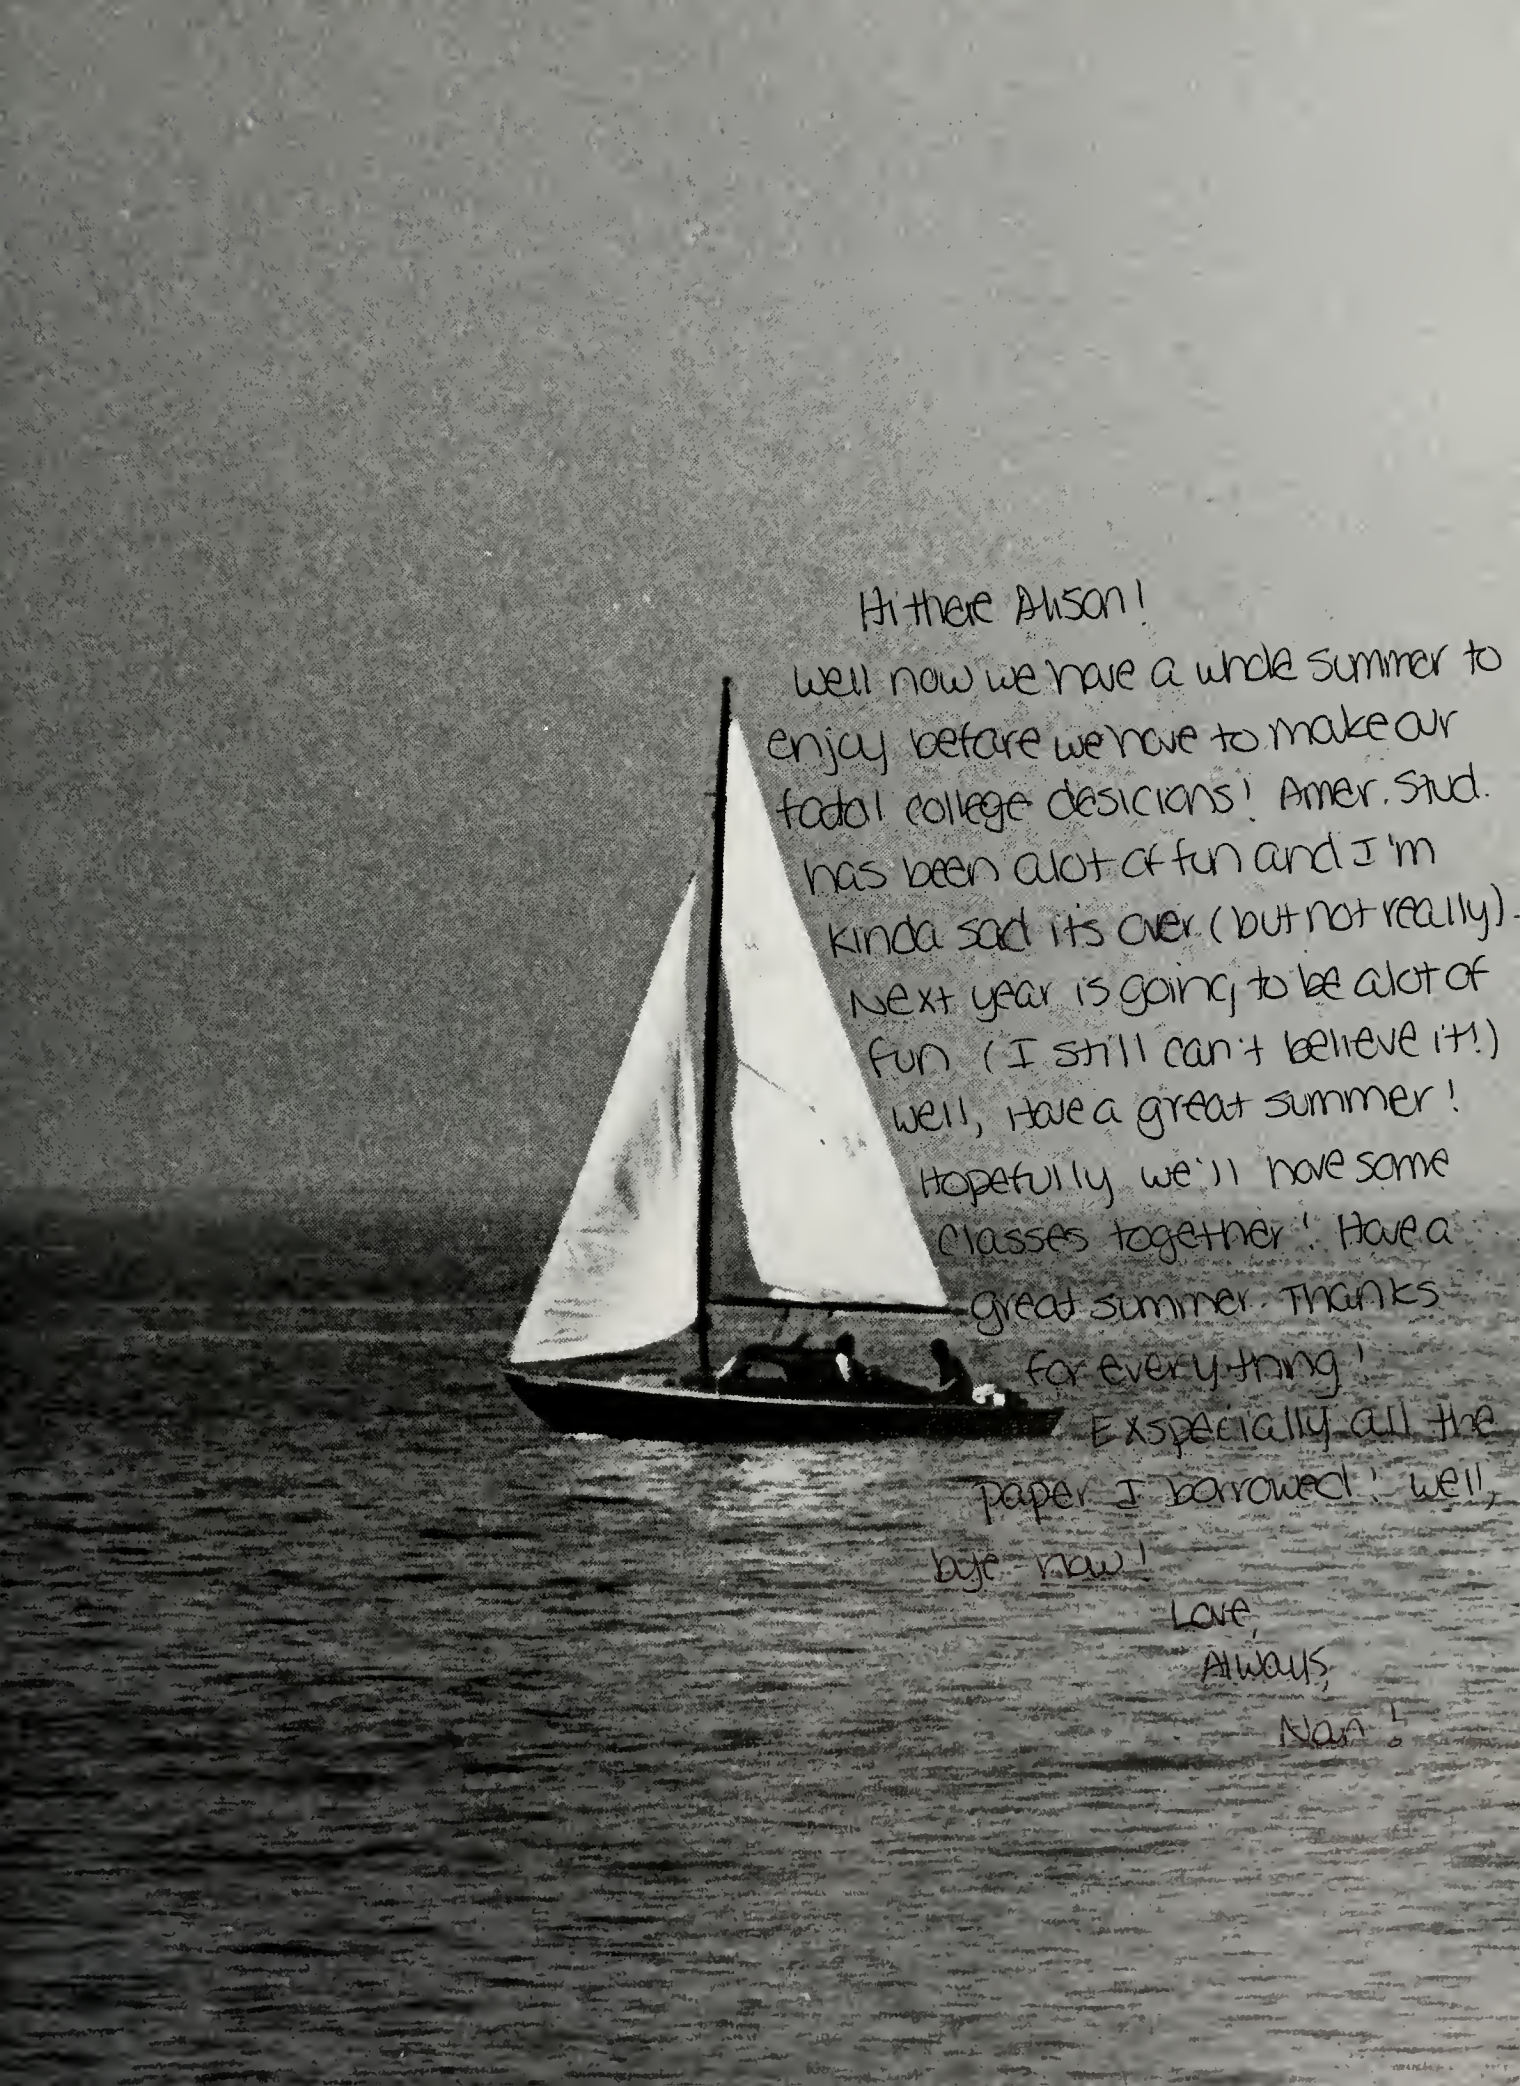
I Love you!

Jill



Alison,
Well soon we won't have US History & House to enjoy or Mr. Kordich to lust for, which I know we will both miss alot. I still had a fun time (as much as you can in class) getting to know you because you are such a neat girl. Hopefully I'll be seeing you a lot at parties or at the beach this summer. If you every get a craving for pastries - come into Jacks & buy something from me -

See you around
- Beth (378-7100)



Hi there Alison!
Well now we have a whole summer to enjoy before we have to make our fatal college desicions! Amer. Stud. has been a lot of fun and I'm kinda sad it's over (but not really). Next year is going to be a lot of fun (I still can't believe it!) well, Have a great summer! Hopefully we'll have some classes together! Have a great summer. Thanks for everything! Exspecially all the paper I borrowed! well, bye now!

Love,
Always,
Nan!

Pep Squad struggles to keep up PV spirit

Throughout the 1982-83 year the Pep Squad supported every athletic group from football to girls' soccer. Not only cheering at football and basketball, the Pep Squad has tried to spread their spirits among all the teams.

Enthusiastic leadership by Pep Squad President, Nina Brunstrom; Head Cheerleader, Lisa Mills; Head Flagtwirler, Patti Campbell; and Head Songleader, Kristen Lantz brought this year to a tremendous success.

Hindered by injuries and inexperience, the Sea King Varsity football team lost many games it should have won. Senior Nominee for Athlete of the year and Captain, Bill Mashy, led the team with his inspiration and also received the awards for Most Valuable Player, Most Inspirational, and shared the co-Most Valuable Defensive Player with Second Team All-Bay-League corner, Bill Mulkey. Also receiving all-league honors was offensive tackle John Wang.

The Most Valuable Offensive Player was Andy Markesano, while the Most Improved was John Rafuse. Other key players included Marty Settevendemie, Joe Militello, Tom Marracci, and Jerry Finnigan.

JV football faces unusual season

JV football was faced with a unique situation: without a coach and enough players to practice with, the team was incorporated into the Varsity squad. Although this enabled team members to learn from more experienced players, the JV team seemed to have lost its identity.

The JV overcame these problems, however, and shaped up well. With Gil Eberhard, Varsity baseball coach, and Brian Smith, Varsity football coach, as JV's official coaches, and with a few Varsity players, the JV team managed a fair season.

Players such as MVP Phil Collard, running back Albert Alberto, and tight-end Andy Wilhem pulled the team to a 2-5 record.

With many returning players, the JV will prove to be an asset to next year's Varsity level.

The Freshman football team had an outstanding year with an overall record of 6-1. A big reason for the freshman's success was its defense. Linebacker Jackson Wang and lineman Mike Ameral contained the opponents' offensive attack. The offense also had their share of talents with quarterback Dean Decker gaining PV's yardage in the air, while on the ground, running back Brian Connors and Sam Yoon gained the rest of the yardage. This year there was a two way tie for MVP between Jackson Wang and Brian Connors. The freshman team had such a good year that Coach Judy commented, "I can't wait till they're on Varsity."

Basketball is not an easy game.

Even though the Varsity team had an inordinate amount of adversity, they still had enough character and talent to come through with a successful season. Led by Coach John Mihaljevich and All-American Bay League MVP Woody Jones and All-American First Team All Bay League Jim Pelton, PV finished the year at 17-10, 11-3 in league, losing to Long Beach Poly in the second round of CIF play. Highlights of the season included a Christmas tournament in Las Vegas, national television coverage and beating Rolling Hills twice.

The JV team also had a rewarding season. Spearheaded by the play of Bill Bloore and Steve Lin and the coaching of Mike Boyd, the Sea Kings finished the year at 17-3, 13-1 in league, taking first place in both Bay League and the Rolling Hills Tournament.

Once again the team's strong point was defense, a fundemental strongly emphasized at Palos Verdes. Their impressive zone and man-to-man defenses were a stumbling block for opposing teams throughout the year, as the team finished the season with a record of 15-5 overall.

Led by the starters Kevin Skinner, Brian Dwyer, Kent Clayton, GM Broucek, and Kyle Kazan, the team placed first in Bay League play.

FACING HIS OPPONENT, Scott Tredennick scores for PV.

With the added task of coaching both the sophomore and freshman basketball teams, coaches Doug Mitchell and Jim Mitchell led their teams through one of the most outstanding years Palos Verdes basketball has ever known. The freshmen, led by Co-captains Scott Tredennick and Jeff Pelton, accomplished what no other team has done thus far. They took first place in the prestigious PV High tournament, emerging victorious over Inglewood, a long time PV rival.

With a record of 19-0 overall, the freshmen took first place in the Bay League and became only the second team in Palos Verdes history to go undefeated. Their league record was 14-0.

In addition to the consistent play of their captains, the freshmen also received strong performances from center Dean Decker and guards Barry Hartley and Will Leanord.

PV girls have winning season

Completing its first winning season in three years, the Girls' Varsity Basketball team proved itself a contender through hard work and team spirit, and finished Bay League competition 8-6 and 17-7 overall. Captain and MVP Hilary Recknor and Co-captain Chris Rowley led the team to fourth place in the competitive Bay League. Also contributing fine team basketball, other key players included Julia Perles and Molly Gleason.

Seasonal highlights included PV's victory over league champions Santa Monica, whose only league loss was to PV, a come-from-behind victory in the finals of the Bishop Montgomery Invitational Tournament, and a fifth place in the prestigous South Torrance Invitational Tournament. Coach Wendall Yosida commented, "Great defense, hustle, attitude, and discipline were the key ingredients to our success."

Led by Co-captains Karen Noguchi and Keiko Kinoshita, Girls' Junior Varsity basketball finished a tough season, compiling a 4-10 Bay League record, 6-14 overall. Dedication and team unity helped hold the team together during the season's trying moments.

Along with football and basketball, soccer received much attention in 1983, and deservedly so. The Sea Kings were ranked as one of ten top teams in CIF for the balance of the year, and entered CIF post-season play seeded fourth after capturing the Bay League title.

Led by coaches Alan King, Rich Heffernan, and Dr. Tom Militello, PV turned in consistently fine performances. The Sea King defense, headed by Andy MacTavish, Dave Silvestre, and goalkeeper Drew Leonard, held opponents to a minimum number of goals, chalking up seven league shutouts. The offense, anchored by Jon Israel, Lou Schiappa, Chris Kramer and Brad Morrow, always came through with goals, often when the game was on the line.

Girls' Varsity finished the season with a record of 9-1-2, finishing up as Bay League Champions. Leading the Sea Kings to the Bay League Championship Carin Jennings earned Bay League MVP. Karen Clancy controlled the defense playing an excellent job as sweeper, and Mitch Merlander watched over the game playing numerous positions.

Junior Varsity soccer improved greatly as the season continued. Thought to be the underdog this year because of last years records the team suprised many by dominating the games.

Boys' tennis captures Bay League title

In his third year at PVHS, Coach John Fullerton's expectations were high once again. The Sea Kings were ranked fourth in CIF at the start of the year and proved they were worthy of the ranking by defeating Edison and Rolling Hills, two formidable opponents.
Led by strong players Lance Stanley, Scott Tredennick, Mark Germann, Kurt Kredel and Captain Frank Malone, the team's only apparent weakness was its youth. Malone commented by stating, "With a very young team, lack of experience could hurt us. We have only two seniors on the team, but in a couple of years we will be very strong."

Led by top singles players Eric Grace, Steve Abrams, and Bill Wilson, the JV tennis team professed strong hopes for upcoming years. Strong performances were consistently turned in by Aaro Perheentupa and Philippe Dinnyes, two of PV's most reliable doubles players.

Gymnasts leap into action

With Jim Mitchell returning to coach the gymnastics team, the gymnasts were off to a good start. The year was a lot more organized because the team did not have to adjust to a new coach (which has been the case in previous years).

New members on the team have strengthened its scoring ability. The girls really worked together this year, developing a strong team effort.

All around gymnasts (competing on all four events) were Pebby Hannes, Karen Young, Lisa Prescott, Donna Buckley, and Monica Mac. Other gymnasts focused on specialized events throughout the year.

TEAM CAPTAIN PEBBY HANNES exhibits perfection with a scale on the beam.

PV golf team performs well in their successful season

AFTER A SUCCESSFUL ATTEMPT, Gilbert Yi hits his ball out of the sand trap.

The Palos Verdes golf team continued their years of triumph and victory. Coach Bob Wilton commented, "We have won the league championship fourteen out of the last sixteen years, and continued in that strong tradition of success." The team competed in the Nogales Open in April, and played in the CIF tournament at the end of their season.

The top six players were seniors, Dave Babros, Chris Steiner, and Scott Snell, junior, Brett Hartley, and freshmen, Joe Goswitz and Jim Lee.

Strategy pays off for a successful winning season

SETTER ELLIOTT HAYASE sets a "1" play to senior Bo Barker.

GETTING ABOVE THE NET, Tod Muilenberg makes a spectacular spike to the ground

Leading the Sea King Varsity volleyball team, Ray Nunn has proven his worth as a coach at PV, leading the team to a successful season.

As an example of what natural ability, extensive training and quality coaching can achieve,the team demonstrated what it takes to be competitive throughout the season. Seniors Rob Warren and Tod Muilenberg were pounding holes in the supposedly invincible opponents block. Setter, Captain Elliott Hayase along with Rich Rubincam, Bo Barker, Bill Thompson, Scott Mumby, Casey LaScala, Mike Williams, Dave Stefanides, and Rob Chang showed unstoppable momemtum and anchored the team to victory.

JV volleyball has a productive season

The JV team started the season off well. Exhibiting fine defense and spiking were Co-captains Tom Melton and Mark Goodale. Producing all around good defense were Tom Kilroy and Mike Barker. The team accounted for its success through superb coaching of Wendell Yoshida and Steve Kaback. The team shows a great promise for a successful '84 season.

Varsity track gains strength in field events, sprints

FINISHING THE RACE, Todd Chambers demonstrates his running expertise.

SHOWING GOOD FORM IN HIS JUMP, Peter Perry lands safely.

ROUNDING THE TRACK, junior Greg Monteilh gets set for the next hurdle.

As was the case in past years, the Boy's Varsity Track team had its share of quality distance runners. An additional plus for the 1983 team was a surprising strength in sprints and the field events.

Led by coaches Joe Kelly, Rod Flagler and Brian Springer, Sea King track appears as if it is finally coming of age. Outstanding in distance were Todd Chambers, Roger Booth and Pat Watson while Greg Monteilh anchored the hurdles. Seniors Matt Wallace and Alan MacQuoid were the pacesetters in the high jump and the sprints.

Stated Coach Flagler, "I think PV track is in a stage of rebirth. If we continue to get the good athletes and keep on working hard, the potential that we have will really blossom. We have the raw materials for a strong program."

RECEIVING A STRONG HANDOFF, Alan MacQuoid continues the race as John Rafuse finishes.

WITH HIS UNIQUE STYLE, Matt Wallace confidently sails over the bar.

Sophomores show promise and pizzaz

SOARING THROUGH THE AIR, Mark Tran completes another excellent jump.

Frosh sweep events with future promise

Exceptional performances were displayed by members of the Freshman track team. Ryan Murphy showed great stamina and will be a great distance runner. Palos Verdes also did well in field events.

FRESHMAN RUNNERS Ryan Murphy, Gerald Timbol, and Patrick Arrillga round the bend of the track.

Girl's track improves with greater participation

TRYING TO KEEP THEIR PLACES, PV runners maintain a fast pace.

FLYING THROUGH THE AIR, Kimi Warden demonstrates her form.

AHEAD OF THE PACK, Stacey O'Hara and Karen Noguchi run on to the finish.

JUMPING HIGH, Kristen Bennett clearly makes it over the high jump bar.

The Girl's Varsity and JV teams, did not have to depend as heavily on their long-distance runners as in the past. With a much stronger turnout than last year, and "the addition of some talented sophomores and freshman in sprints and hurdles, the Sea Kings were strengthened," commented Mr. Flagler, sprints and hurdles coach. As usual, however, the Sea Kings were carried mostly by the distance runners, some of whom were members of the Bay League Championship Cross-country team. But even with such outstanding runners as Kristan O'Hara, Becky Merrell, Co-captains Kristen Bennett and Vicky Maston, and the cross-country runners, the teams were still a couple years away from their championship reign which they ruled in the early 70's. "Fortunately, we are blessed with many runners who are not seniors," stated Head Coach Joe Kelly. So the team will definitely be up for the League Championship in the upcoming years.

GETTING READY FOR THE START, Dave Neilan waits as the Varsity medley watches.

Swimmers prove their abilities

With one of the more talented teams in recent years, the Boys' Varsity swim team had strong representation in the Bay League and CIF competition. Led by senior Captain Scott Peppard in the 50 and 100 free and 4-year varsity swimmer Mike Hogan in the 100 fly and 500 free, the team placed high in the competitive Bay League. Other team leaders were junior Dave Neilan in the 100 back and 200 free and transfer-student sophomore Dave Tanner in the 100 breast. The top diver was Will Veal. Lack of swimmers hurt the team's depth, but the high caliber of all swimmers helped overcome this. The team's successful year was due to the guidance of Coach Doug Martin.

Frosh/Soph team showed great improvement with a small, but dedicated group of sophomores including Bob Li, Dave Reeves, John Redd, Bob McCallum, Eric Nelson and Dave Dollar, as well as one of the best groups of freshmen in several years.

Sea King swimmers lead Bay League

The Girls' swim team had an excellent season this year, dominating the Bay League and continuing its high level of competition. "It's one of the most exciting years we've had," commented Coach Jean Myhre.

Displaying good depth in every event, the swimmers were led by seniors Peggy Ninnis and Jenny Dollar; juniors Chris Rowley and Chris Hagan, as well as underclassmen Janet Ramirez, Caroline Spears, Karen Ramirez, Nicole Vuilleimier, DeAnne Twidwell, and Lisa Goldman also showed outstanding promise for the years to come.

Frosh/Soph baseball does well in Bay League play

Led by the competent coaching of coach Ken Russell and coach Bill Judy, the Frosh/Soph and JV baseball program looked very strong this year. Both coaches said pitching is the name of the game. Chris Davis, and Scott Strenk with fine back-up from Garrett Frantz and Kevin Pearce on Frosh/Soph and Scott Giordanella, Doug Murtha with strong back-up from Bill Pence on JV proved them correct.

The Varsity softball team, coached by Becky Fields, consisted of six returning players. Although considered a young team, the Sea Kings had a successful Bay League season. Carin Jennings at short stop and Ady Balog as catcher helped the team maintain a good defense. Michelle Johnson pulled through remarkably with her pitching capability and Ann Vasey dominated the outfield.

With leading players Monica Savo and Alane Scoville, the Junior Varsity team had an exciting season. Coached by John Mihaljevich, the team proved once again to be an offensively and defensively strong contender.

School Board has a troublesome year

In the 1982-1983 school year, proposition thirteen finally hit the school district. The school board, headed by Mrs. Patricia Johansen, had to deal with the one million dollar cut in the school district's 32 million dollar budget.

Dr. Claude Norcross stepped down from his position as superintendent after 8 years, and Dr. Jack Rankin became acting superintendent to finish out 1982-1983. Mr. Jon Knickerbocker had a position change, becoming Administrator of Secondary Education and Administrative Services.

Administrators and board members listen attentively at a District School Board Meeting.

According to Principal Nancy Detjen, Palos Verdes High School has been getting better each year. While 1982-1983 brought hurricane force winds in December, the school survived, although missing some favorite trees.

Computer classes, taught by Miss Gell, for the teachers were a popular innovation as was the Hot Potato Bar for students.

Major changes included the computerized phone system that would certainly have pleased even E.T., the second copier to ease the panic among teachers, and the counseling office's computer tie-in to the district to facilitate student scheduling and grade distribution.

Patient people listen to student problems

Most people get pretty fed-up listening to others' problems all day, but Palos Verdes High School has five people who do just that. Everyday, and all day, the counselors listen to students' complaints. Helping the students with schedule changes, teacher problems, and college choices, counselors work long hours to help the students.

According to Richard Selway, head counselor, those long lines for the first couple days of school meant that the counselors made about 1,000 schedule changes per year.

Librarians adjust to changing of system

PV's librarians came up with a new circulation system in which all the books in the library are recorded in an apple computer newly purchased for the library. The system will make it easier to check out books. Mrs. Pietro said, "It will be much easier to see which books are missing and who has them at the end of the year."

English strengthens writing curriculum

English Department has developed a new system for the annual writing standards test. Instead of having one writing test as in the previous years, the placement of students in senior English will be based on an accumulation of writing test scores from 8-12th grade.

Rod Flagler, head of the department, feels this will be a better and more personal way to evaluate the writing ability of the student.

Computers bought, CP Math phased out

The Math Department obtained four new Apple Computers to upgrade the Department's expanding computer program. "We're trying to encourage the use of computers in our current Math Program," explained Mrs. Gell, "and the new computers will make the computer program accessible to more of the interested students."

Math Analysis was created as an easier alternative to Calculus. College Prep Math, on the other hand, is being phased out in favor of the normal Algebra I and Geometry courses.

The Math Department welcomed Jill Thompson back after a two year absence, while it said good-bye to Mrs. Keller, who took a year's leave of absence.

No longer a PVHS novelty, the American Studies program, headed by Mike House and Joe Kelly, is in its third year. A year course, it enables the teachers to tie in the study of American literature with the appropriate period of time in history.

Popular courses with seniors who intend to graduate, the government and economics programs are highly informative, and offer many avenues of learning outside the normal classroom activities. To date, they have been visited by Republican Dan Lungren, Gary Walterschied of the John Birch Society, and a representative of the League of Women Voters.

PV has outstanding talents in the 'arts'

Drama I, II, III, and IV performed at Story Theatre, Traveling Theatre, festivals, and the fall and spring shows with talent and enthusiasm.

Several enjoyable performances were given by the Marching Band, Orchestra, Concert Band, and Stage Band.

The Vocal Music Department was limited to Chamber Chorale and Choir II, while Renaissance Singers, Male Chorus, and Womens' Ensemble continued as strong extra-curricular activities.

Jim Bell: Drama I Audition, Drama I,II,III,IV.

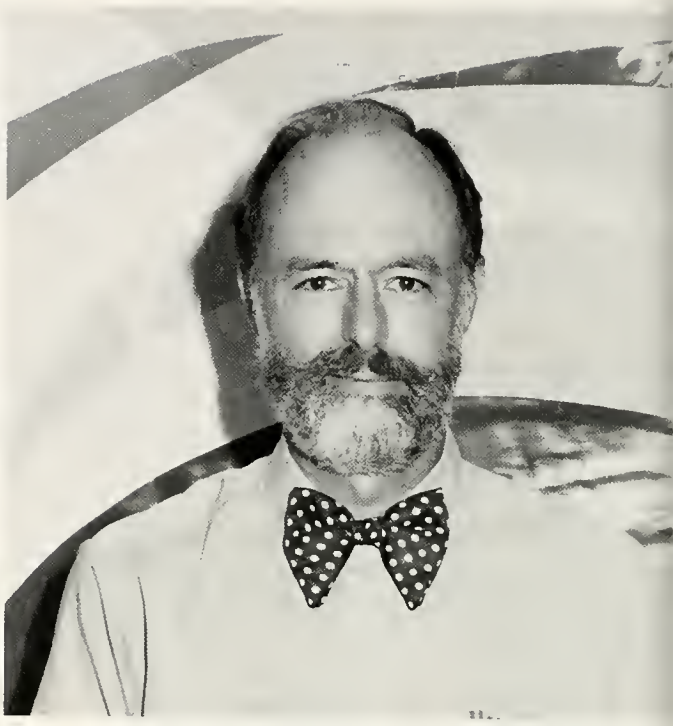
Ted Still: Choir II, Chamber Chorale.

Don Marino: Music Appreciation, Concert Band, StageBand, Orchestra.

More emphasis put on art competition

In the Art Department, emphasis was placed more on competition than in previous years. Several class contests were held within art classes designing such things as formal bids and various posters and designs. Silk screening, although not quite as competitive, was extremely popular, as were the expanded ceramics classes.

Linda Russell: Crafts, Beginning Art, Creative Design.



Ron Roush: Ceramics I, II, Beginning Ceramics.

Chizuko de Quieros: Commercial Art, AP Art, Drawing/Painting I, II.

Foes of adversity

Confronted with financial adversity, the Physical Education Department must be commended on the fine job it did in the absence of sufficient funds. The staff ran its program efficiently, and the students thoroughly enjoyed the course. Activities included dance, football, basketball, volleyball, swimming, as well as several safety courses.

Tech Arts and Home-Ec survive cut in programs

Brian Springer: Metalshop, Mechanical Drawing A, B, Welding/Machine Shop, Vehicle Care

Continuing the heated competition, Creative Cooking held the Sixth Semi-Annual Chile Cookoff. The Gourmet Cooking class began a new tradition with the highly successful Renaissance Banquet of Lorenzo De' Medici.

Despite budget cuts the Technical Arts department continued to grow in popularity.

Career education: a focus this year

Resource Specialists and the Special Day Class teacher initiated a program of career education with their students. They invited speakers, participated in field trips, and utilized the computer lab to explore job opportunities.

Communications with regular teachers continues to remain a priority of the program.

Continuation students worked toward passing the California state proficiency requirements in order to pass the state test for graduation. Many attended classes at PVHS and SCROC to complete the credit requirements for a diploma.

Secretaries learn about computers

The Palos Verdes School District happily announced its adoption of a Burroughs computer which helps the secretaries program students, gets GPA updates, and will eventually do everything possible to make the offices' jobs easier.

According to Mrs. Von Spaeth, the computer is an "answer to accuracy" and with the "touch of a button" knows what is going on everywhere.

School aides a tremendous aid

The English writing aides program has existed since last February, consisting of up to nine aides who work fifteen hours a week. They assist teachers in correcting mechanics and provide tutoring. This program allows teachers to increase the amount of writing assigned to students and enables teachers to grade the content of the writing.

The special education program is still going strong. There are now three aides who help students who have learning disabilities.

Study hall is a brand new class which was held periods one through five. Students are required to take four consecutive classes so study hall is used to fulfill this requirement. A citizenship grade is received but no letter grade.

Special Education Aides: Muriel Bewick, Lynette Watchempino, Patricia Glas.

English Writing Aides: Felica Hunter, Faith Sabel, Margaret Ready, Pearl Johnson, Marlene Fuentevilla.

Study Hall Aid: Lyn Hunt.

PV supervisors keep school under control

Custodians and groundsmen had a hard year because of the storm activity. They had to clean up all the debris after the storms were over.

The cafeteria staff continued its job of providing students with snacks and lunches. Hot potatoes became a new entry which was very popular.

The campus supervisors had a change in staff. Mrs. Davis replaced Mrs. Nielsen, while Mr. Mollica remained throughout the whole year.

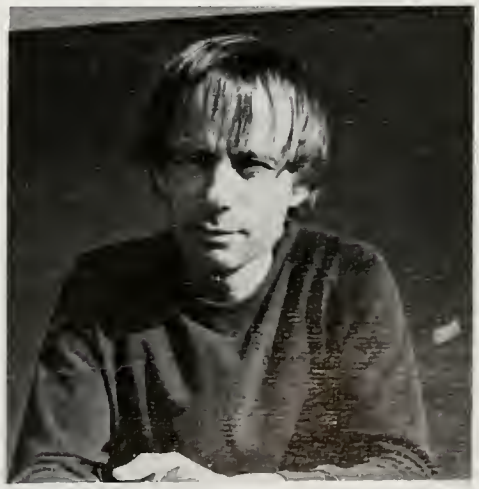
Custodians: Carlos Vega, Frank Leroy, Jeff Beck, Earl Nesbitt, Jerry Sisneros, Jack Kitchen, LLoyd Wells, Ray Brock.

Cafeteria Workers: Elsie McGee, Brigitte Walz, Lucille Belt, Geraldine Pandora, Bertini Bliss, Mary Crum, Ruth Stephens, Mit Albanese, Donna Taylor, Carmen Castillejo.

Groundsmen: Val Guzman, Jesse Gonzalez.

Campus Supervisor: Colleen Nielsen.

Campus Supervisor: Fran Davis.



Campus Supervisor: James Mollica.

Thanks to Gerald Evans for Summer Show, Fall Play and Spring Musical

As we walked down the dark hall that last deadline night, we could only focus on the past four blurry years inside Room 403: were the years spent with lunatics, unruly typesetters, disappearing pens, grease pencils, exactos, and croppers, argumentative photogs, an advisor driven progressivly insane, and basic filth worth it?

Maybe...

One look at the book is our testimony. No one except the staff and editors know how much time and effort actually went into this book, and perhaps no one appreciates it more.

Looking back at the countless hours we spent in 403, its obvious that many of our most memorable times were spent there. It was rarely a class that we dreaded, although around deadline time it could have easily been mistaken for the local sanitorium. "Take your board over to Brenden and have it ok'd." "...Uh, who's Brenden?" "He's the other editor." "...Oh." (Not being in 5th period yearbook caused definite communication difficulties.) "How long has Brian been sitting at the computer?" "I think since 1:30" "Hey, it's 11:30 now!" "Why is no one here?" "Sunday night with 90,000 mistakes...the staff's going to get it tomorrow!" "Wait... it is tomorrow!" "I can't believe they left this...."

Those deadlines were unreal. However, we owe a heartfelt thanks to our editors and staff. The work (and fun) would have been impossible without you. Thanks also to Dave Sorenson for his valuable suggestions and special advice on the cover. Our most special thanks goes to our advisor, Pat Linehan. How you've put up with all the chaos for the past four years is beyond us. You've carried us through.

Best to all,

Brian Cooper

Alison-

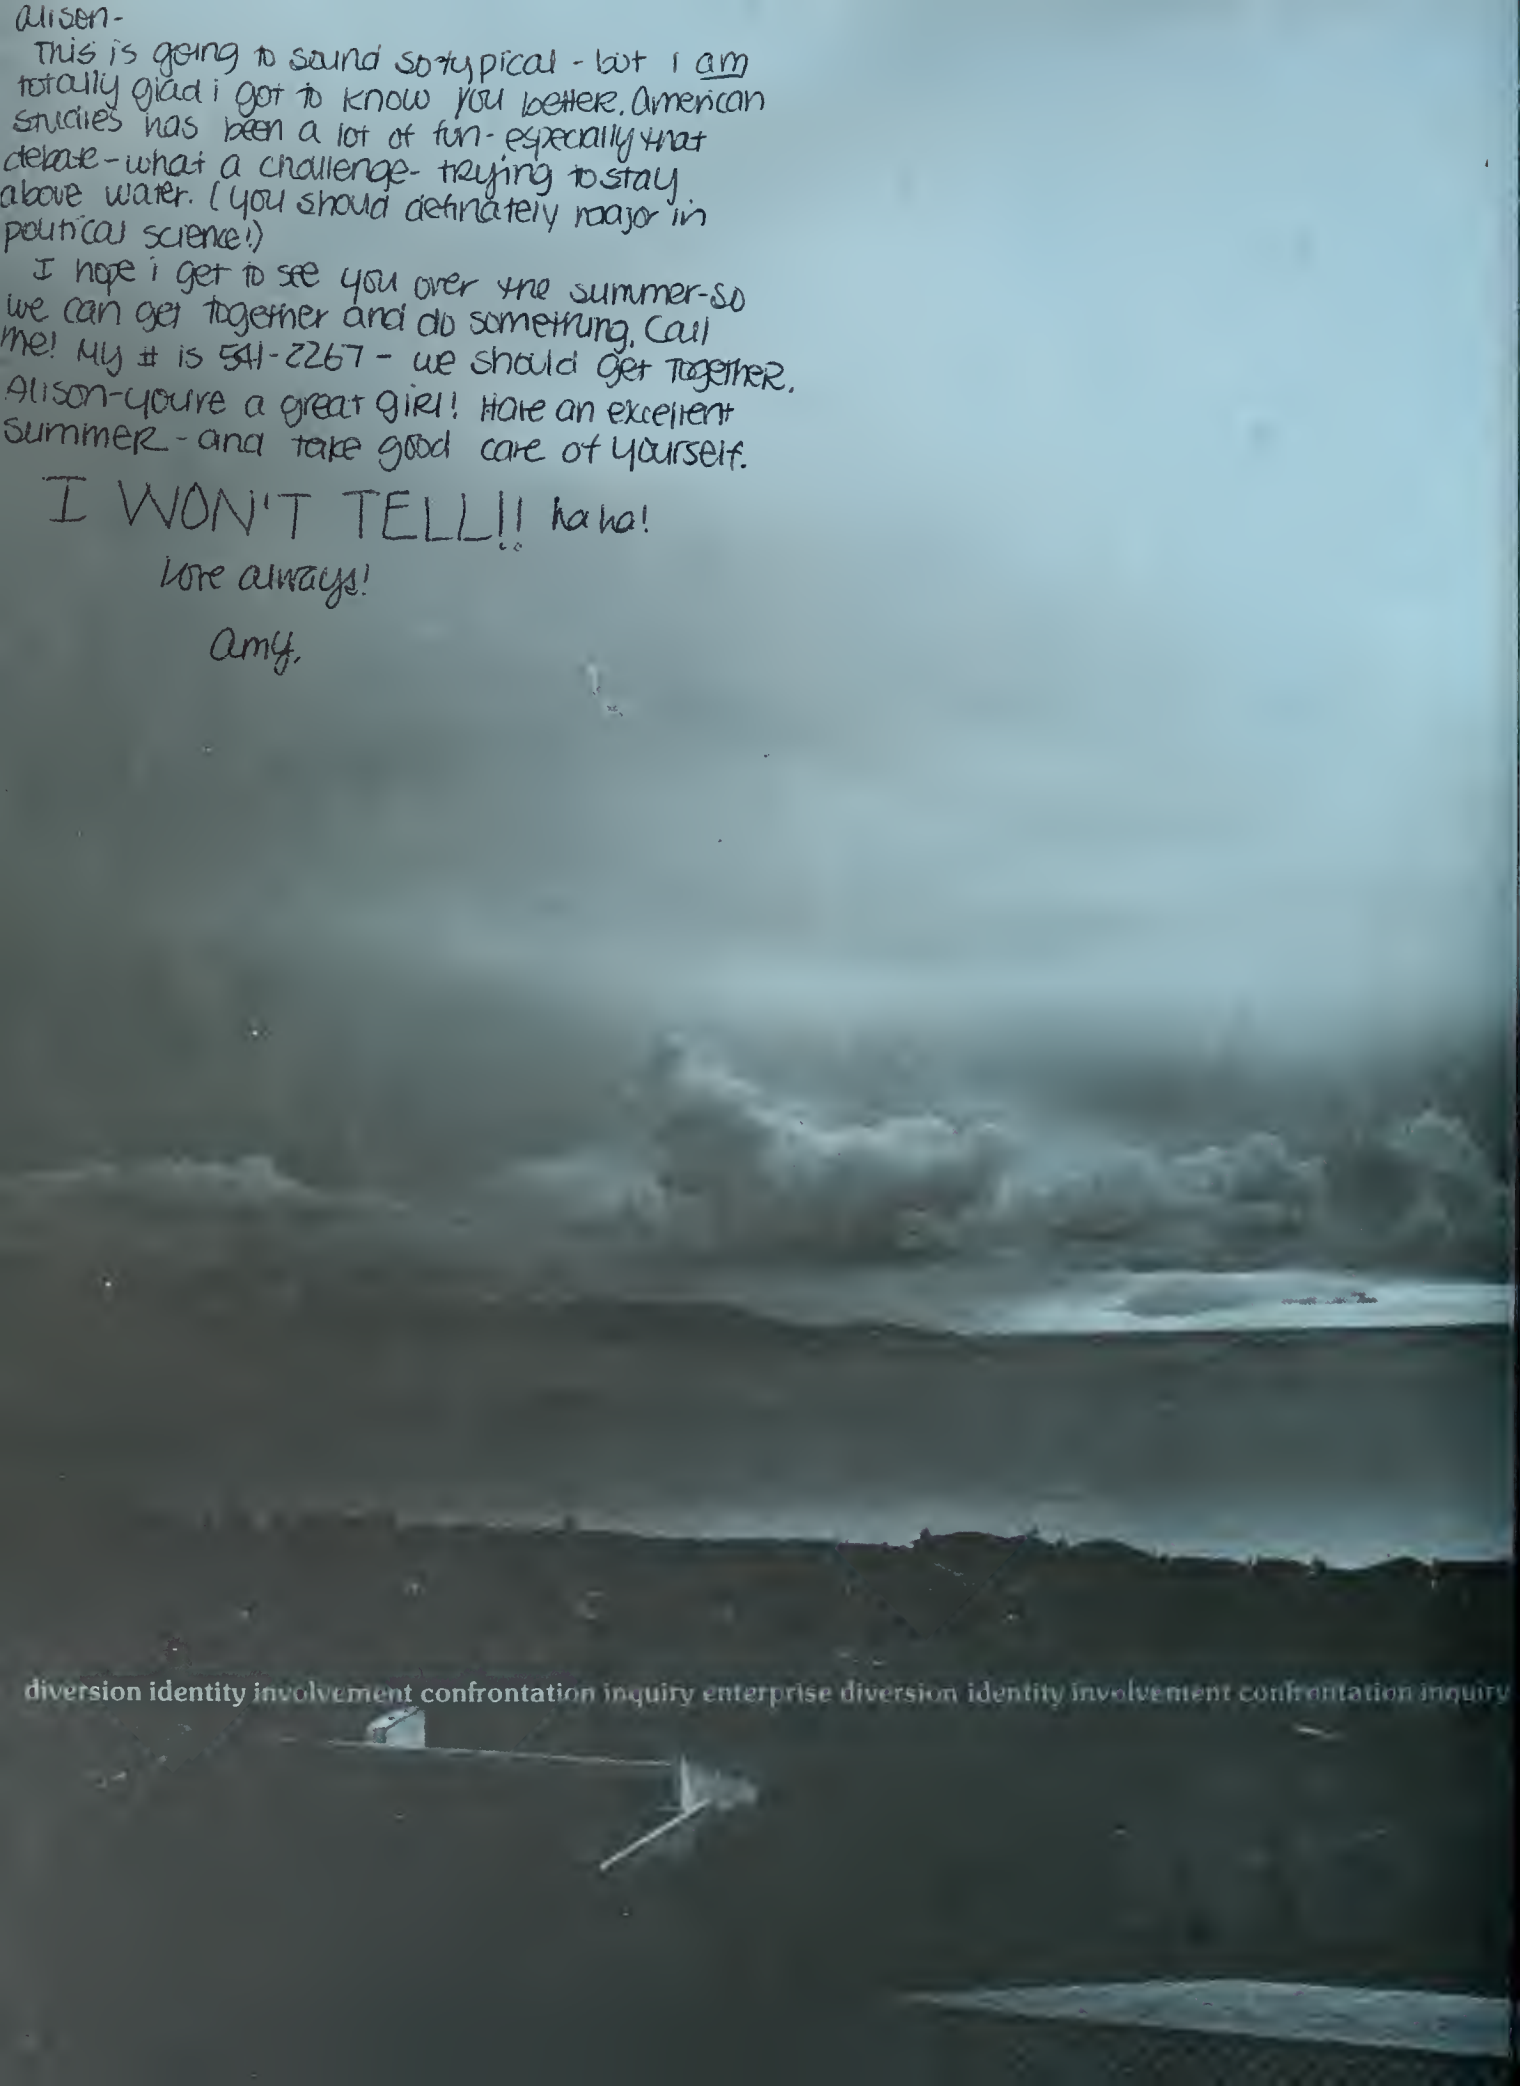
This is going to sound so typical - but I am totally glad I got to know you better. American studies has been a lot of fun - especially that debate - what a challenge - trying to stay above water. (You should definately major in political science!)

I hope I get to see you over the summer - so we can get together and do something. Call me! My # is 541-2267 - we should get together. Alison - you're a great girl! Have an excellent summer - and take good care of yourself.

I WON'T TELL!! ha ha!

Love always!

Amy.



Alison - Like you said - have a really rad summer - I Know I don't have to tell you that. You know, this year was really usual if you know what I mean. I hope you & Angelo stay the "hot couple" that you are. Ha Ha - Maybe you guys could double with you know who. Ha Ha. I never know what to write in your yearbook - because you are just such the bitchen chick. Have fun in Europe - don't get too out of hand with those cute Mexicans in Spain!! (Yeah!) You and "Roberto Gonzalez" would have such cute kids! You're stoked you're leaving - you can have a break from the people who were in Kelly's note that time (notice now I don't use the word) have a good summer. We'll party when
